

Policy

SAFETY PATROLS

The Mount laurel Township School District Board of Education believes that pupil safety patrols can contribute greatly to the development of good traffic habits and can provide opportunities for growth in leadership skills.

Therefore, the chief school administrator shall develop regulations for the formation of safety patrols.

These regulations shall include, but not be limited to, provision for:

- A. Appointment of a faculty advisor to select, instruct and discipline members of the safety patrol;
- B. Informing candidates and their parents/guardians of the purpose and activities of the patrol and the possible hazards;
- C. Obtaining signed, written consent from the parent/guardian for the pupil's involvement in the safety patrol;
- D. An outline of duties suitable to each school building;
- E. Cooperation with the police.
